

Aria (firmware)

It's just a super fun vowel generator ...

Now Free !

S.A.M (firmware)

Released in 1982, SAM was the first software-only speech synthesizer for personal computers. It was available for the Apple II, Commodore 64, and Atari 8-bit computers and allowed users to generate robotic-sounding spoken words from written text.